

Topics

Understanding the elements of power and control

Shea Spampneto, MAT
Helping those with disabilities who are also battered

Survivor's story – a domestic violence survivor shares her story of abuse and recovery

Dr. Fred Buttell, Tulane School of Social Work.
Understanding the batterer's behavior and personality

Joan Miller, JD., Gaining a Temporary Restraining Order

Karen Avery, JD, Orleans Parish District Attorney's office. Prosecuting the perpetrator.

Timothy McEvoy, JD., Post Separation Family Violence Relief Act

Annie Johnston, JD. U-Visa, T-Visa process for undocumented victims of crime

Julie Pellegrin, Executive Director, The Haven.
"Trauma informed care in a shelter setting"

Dr. Kathryn Theall, The Health Care response to domestic violence – understanding domestic violence as a public health matter.

Dr. Debbie St. Germain, LSU School of Nursing

Jennifer Taylor, NOFJC.
Dating Violence Prevention

Please join us for the Southeast Louisiana Regional Domestic Violence Prevention/Intervention Training

New Orleans Family
Justice Alliance

701 Loyola
New Orleans
2nd floor conference room

Dates: June 12-14 and 19-21, 2014

Time: 12,13,19,20th 8:45-4:00 p.m.
14th and 21st 9:30-3:00 p.m.

A word about parking. Remember that there is ample parking in adjacent lots to the post office. The parking fee is $7.00 per day. You will need exact change for the box. You will get a very expensive ticket if you park in the post office lot - courtesy of the USPS security team.

To register, visit our website: www.nofjc.org
Click on events, complete the registration.

Fee: $25.00 each day. Come to all 6 days for $100.00
Lunch on your own.

Cancellation: if you prepay you must cancel 24 hours in advance for a refund. You may pay at the door.

34 CEUs have been applied for through NASW

5.5 CLEs have been applied for through the Louisiana Bar Association